President Roosevelt will receive the tembers in the East Room of the White House at 2:36 p. m., the convention proceeding in a body from the New Willard. Mr. and Mrs. James W. Pinchot will entertain the members of the league at their home, 1615 Rhode Island avenue northwest, at 4 o'clock. A banquet at the New Willard in the evening will conclude the meeting of the league. Dr. Hollings-worth, chairman of the committee of arrangements, is at the New Willard, where he will receive the delegates.

The league is organized on lines similar to the German Navy League for the pur-pose of giving facilities for studying questions affecting the navy, and to give expression to the great interest which felt in it by the public at large. The WANTED-FIFTY COLORED MINERS AND LAconvention will give particular considerathe officers of the league declare has been smothered by Senator Hale and Chairman Foss, who seem bent on continuing the present dangerous condition of our naval organization. Strong reso lutions condemning their action will be introduced at the forthcoming sessions of

The league's membership is made up of citizens having no direct connection with and efficient navy is necessary for the preservation of America's foreign trade.
